Cooking Sorghum Molasses

The Wallace Megginson family cooks their own sorghum molasses. Megginson learned the art of grinding and cooking from his father-in-law, the late Early Franklin. After sorhum grass is ground and cooked, the syrup is dipped off and canned or put in jars for future use.

Prize Winning Bull

Tye Beasley of Appomattox County FFA is shown with Virginia State Fair prize winning bull. The bull was assigned to Tye by the Junior FFA chapter. Tye fed and trained the bull for the show. The bull will now be used as herd sire for the chapter.

A.C.H. S. HOMECOMING 1974

Homecoming at A.C.H.S. got off to a spirited start with a parade on Friday, October 18th. Floats from most school clubs and organizations participated and the High School Band played a number of selections. There were also several marching units and community entries. The theme for this year's Homecoming was "Spirit Is - - ". From this theme each of the clubs had to originate an idea for their float. First place float was from the World Culture Club with the theme "Spirit Is A World Affair." Second place went to the F.F.A. float and third place was won by the P.E.L.A. float.

At the football game, during half-time the Queen, Miss Carolyn Jo Morris was crowned and the rest of her court was introduced. From the Freshman class, Kathy St. John was escorted by Robert Dyess and Lynn Reynolds by Andrew Wingfield. Sophomore Princesses were Arlene Ferguson and Brigid Watts, escorted by James Robinson and Tony Snell. The Junior class representatives were Janet Booth and Robin Carter who were escorted by Bruce Gallier and Gordon Ford. Queen candidates and their escorts were Gay Honeycutt, Michael Ramsey, Carla Varner, David Marshall, carolyn Jo Morris and Michael Quinn.

The Homecoming dance was held after the game at the High School with music by the Galaxies. Drinks were furnished courtesy of the Coca Cola Company.

Gideons Hold Annual Rally

Jerry H. Gass, secretary of the Virginia Gideons, will be the guest speaker for the annual rally of the Appomattox Gideon Camp to be held Saturday, Nov. 2, 1974, at the Parkway Resturant. Area ministers and their wives will be special guests. Gass is active in the Virginia Gideon work, as well as the work in zone nine. He is associated with the Va. Poultry Federation, Inc. of Harrisonburg, Va.

In addition to the members of the Appomattox Camp (which is responsible for the counties of Buckingham, Charlotte, and Appomattox) a number of Gideons from surround i n g camps are expected to be present. The Gideons Auxiliary will be represented, by wives of the Gideons.

The Gideons International is a Christian business and a professional men's association, numbering over 40,000 members in 105 countries around the world. The association is engaged in placing Holy Bibles in hotels, motels, and hospitals. They also present New Testaments to students, military personnel, and nurses. Over 14 million Bibles and Testaments have been placed since 1908, in 42 different languages.

On Sunday, November 3, 1974, members of the Gideons will be speaking in many Appomattox, Buckingham, and Charlotte County churches, telling these congregations about the results of the Gideon work around the world.

Missionary To Preach At Bible Baptist

Ralph Hoffman

This Sunday night Missionary Ralph Hoffman will be preaching at the Bible Baptist Church. Bro. Hoffman was called to preach in 1959 and attended Baptist Bible Institute. Dr. Harold Sightler, President. After pastoring for several years Bro. Hoffman felt the call to the Mission Field and in July 197a4 resigned his church and started deputation. Bro. Hoffman and his family plan to go to Canada and enter in full time missionary work for the L. .

We invite the community to come and hear Bro. Hoffman present the field of Canada to our church and friends.

MR. FOREST 6 GRADE

Mr. Forest's sixth grade class had its 4-H meeting today on Oct. 18, 1974. Norma Hancock led us in the 4-H Pledges, Charlene Jones led us in the pledge to the American Flag. Our Recreation Leaders leds us in a song and a game. The secretary read the minutes of our last meeting. We got our new project books. They pasted out papers on Share-the Fun and we saw some slides on Share-the-Fun. Our President closed the meeting.
